HOST, HAROLD RYA, PASTOR AND ATTORNEY, JEAN HOCH-STETTLER, DEBBIE DEEB AND VICKY Goodchild, all home-schooling parents discussed the pros and cons of homeschooling. Vicki explained she saw negative socialization and she did not like the idea of turning her child over to someone that didn't know it. Debbie explained that when her child was 5 she also decided not to turn her child's life over to the control to someone else. The ability of transfer from mother to teacher was discussed along with good and bad reason for the decision to homeschool. The benefits and drawbacks were presented along with suggested curriculum and resource materials.

	Attorney, Harold Ray, introduced Hohn Thompson, Attorney at Law and J.T. Johnson of the Christian Coalition. They presented an expose on a school program called "The Link Line". The Link Line consists of 71 tapes produced by the University of Wisconsin and deals with homosexuality under the guise of an anti-drug program. Homosexuality is presented as something with which to experiment one's sexuality and that it is normal from birth to some people. Encouraging teenagers to try homosexuality to find out if it is normal for them, the tapes validate pre-marital sexual exploration. Because public tax monies were used to produce and promote the course of "study" as an anti-drug program, the audience was urged to voice their views to school systems across the nation. The tapes also encourage teens to think of their parents as enemies trying to suppress their sexual maturation. A warning

HOMELESS	FEEDBACK #177	28:03	21:00	R	PA/O	8-15-91 11:30AM
Harold Calvin Ray interviewed panelist Steve Michaelson of the Florida Food Recovery Project and Christian Hildner of the Miami Coalition for the Homeless. A roll-in about the problem of the homeless and problems experienced by the homeless was presented. Factors such as medical bill, job loss, divorce and mental illness were given as contributing to the homeless situation. The problem of homeless families and single women with children without homes were discussed in relation to family violence, causing family break-up and a homeless situation. The amount of food thrown away in most large cities was equated to the amount of food that it would take to feed that city's homeless population. Ways communities could help obtaining food destined to be wasted were presented and viewers were challenged to make a difference in their communities and help start programs that will offer solutions to the homeless problem in America.
	JOY #710-91	27:45	12:00	L	PA/O	7-10-91 9:30AM
Fran Lindquist, founder of Sheepfold, a shelter for homeless and abused women and their dependent children told host, Jim McClellan, about the lives of the women she services. A roll-in was presented showing the different socioeconomic levels of the women that come into the shelter and the factors in their lives leading up to that point. Fran stated that recent cuts in the budget cut welfare so much that these women cannot make it without shelter provision and would be homeless street people. She challenged viewers to start shelter ministries to help curb the tide of homeless people, especially women with children.
